

Susmita A. Gadre

Associate

617.646.8164

Susmita.Gadre@WolfGreenfield.com

Susmita Gadre focuses her practice on patent litigation.

While in law school, Susmita was a member of the Northeastern University Law Review, and participated in the National Appellate Advocacy Competition. Before joining Wolf Greenfield full time, she was a summer associate at the firm. During her time at Wolf Greenfield, Susmita assisted with various cases in the litigation group.

Susmita was also a legal intern at Sigfox and LiquiGlide. There, she focused on supporting the in-house counsel with a variety of matters, focusing on contracts work and intellectual property, respectively. Susmita spent another co-op working for The Honorable Donald L. Cabell (Magistrate Judge, D. Mass.), where she helped research cases and observed district and appellate proceedings.

Activities

- South Asian Bar Association

Interests

- vegetarian cooking, fantasy football, group fitness classes

Education

Boston University, BA,
Chemistry

Northeastern University
School of Law, JD

Practice Groups

Litigation